Abstract (en)

A flavor generating unit (26) for incorporation into a flavor generating article (10) which delivers to a consumer an inhalable flavor-containing substance. The flavor generating unit includes a distributed heat source (20) and a distributed flavor source (21) in thermal contact with the distributed heat source. The flavor generating unit can also include an insulating material (24). Furthermore, the distributed flavor source can be composed of one or more individual flavor source components. <IMAGE>
