Abstract (en)

The printing process comprises the operations of: forming the decoration to be transferred onto the sheet (10) by means of coloured ink on a sheet of paper (12); superimposing the said paper sheet (12) over the sheet (10) to be decorated, maintaining them pressed against one another; and delivering to the said ink, by radiating it with microwaves, a quantity of energy sufficient to cause its transfer onto the sheet (10) to be decorated.
