Abstract (en)

[origin: WO9206378A1] Components of fluorescent conjugates are supplied separately to an environment and are coupled in the presence of a target organism cell or tissue to obtain a fluorescent conjugate which can be used to detect the target.

Abstract (fr)

On alimente séparément un milieu en composés de conjugués fluorescents qui se lient en présence d'une cellule ou d'un tissu d'organisme cible, de sorte que l'on obtient un conjugué fluorescent pouvant servir à détecter ladite cible.
