Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0558909A1] Stackable container for holding paper or the like, wherein the lower edge (15) of each side (5, 7) has a horizontal tooth (21) which is adapted to engage a slot (19) formed on the upper edge (11) of each side of an identical underlying container (1). The lower edge (17) also has vertical teeth (23) which are adapted to prevent the horizontal tooth from moving out of the slot. An anchoring plate allows to hang the stacked containers for example below a desk. <IMAGE>
