Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9213126A1] The invention concerns a straight-knitting machine with at least one needle board, mobile needles disposed in the needle board and immobile comb plates. In such a machine, the invention proposes simple design, production and control means which ensure that stitches are held in place, this being done by means of mobile retainer plates (17) in addition to the immobile comb plates (7, 8).

Abstract (fr)
Dans un métier à tricoter rectiligne comportant au moins un lit d'aiguilles, des aiguilles mobiles dans le lit, ainsi que des plaques à peigne immobiles, le maintien des aiguilles vers le bas est assuré par des moyens simples du point de vue conception, technique de fabrication et commande, car l'on a prévu, en plus des plaques de peigne immobiles (7, 8), des plaques de pression mobiles (17).
