Abstract (en)

A domestic washing machine is described, in particular a laundry washing machine, comprising a cabinet having at least three vertical walls. The main characteristic of the washing machine described is that each of said three vertical walls (F,L) is strengthened on at least one extremity, in particular the lower, with a multiple bent shaping (1,2,3,4,5; 6,7,8,9,11), in particular more than five bends, and at least one part of the shaping of one of said walls (F) is crossed, in particular overlapped, with a part of the shaping of the wall (L) to which it is perpendicular. <IMAGE>
