Abstract (en)

A refrigerator shelf assembly (950) with snap-in slides (828) for supporting a sliding bin, receptacle or other separate member is disclosed having a shelf panel (952) and a front rim (954) extending across at least a portion of a front edge of the shelf panel. The front rim extends below the shelf panel and has at least one front slide receptacle (856). A back rim (956) extends across at least a portion of a back edge of the shelf panel and below the shelf panel and has at least one back slide receptacle (852). A pair of slides (828) for receiving and supporting a bin under the shelf panel are removably mounted in the front and back slide receptacles (846,852). <IMAGE>
