Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9322487A1] A textile material has a support (4, 8) to which are linked pieces (5, 9a, b, 10a, b) of textile material. The support (4, 8) of the textile material is covered over its whole surface with a plurality of larger and smaller pieces (5, 9a, b, 10a, b) which form at least one layer (9, 10) and is fixedly linked thereto by glueing or needling. The larger or smaller pieces (5, 9a, b, 10a, b) stem from already processed textile flat materials.
