Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0634531A1] The anchor exhibits an anchor rod (20) as first anchorage member and an anchor plate (14) as second anchorage member. The two anchorage members (20,14) are connected to one another by a connecting means (10). At least the anchor rod (20) can be released from the connecting means (10) in order to permit precisely right-angled installation. <IMAGE>
