Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0635316A1] A slot sorting arrangement for use in sorting postal items comprises an array of open fronted box units 9, 99 which are mounted in cantilevered manner. Each box unit 9, 99 includes at least one L-shaped dividing member 10 which can divide the unit vertically at any one of a plurality of positions along its length. A sorting bay is constructed from such a slot sorting arrangement which is mounted to a wall or frame 11. Additionally, a further sorting bay is also formed when the above bay is constructed with a supplementary slot sorting arrangement mounted to a supplementary frame 111 set at an angle to the wall of frame 11. <IMAGE>
