Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0637903A1] The invention relates to an assembly for distributing cards such as phone cards for example. The assembly comprises a box (10) which receives and houses the said cards which are positioned perpendicularly with respect to the longitudinal axis of the box (10). The box (10) according to the invention is also equipped with apertures (34) which allow a visual check of the filling of the box (10). The box (10) is made from a single part in recyclable and non-polluting material. It can easily be adapted to an interface so as to serve as a magazine box in automatic machines for dispensing the said cards. <IMAGE>
