Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0648988A1] In a refrigerator, having horizontal guide rails arranged on opposite side walls of an inner container (2), shelves of different lengths are provided. In order to provide a simple storage possibility for a shortened shelf with a simple construction, at least one guide rail (12) extends from the rear wall (6) merely over a partial length of other non-shortened guide rails (5). <IMAGE>
