Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0655542A2] Building structure as facade or roof, with at least one panel, e.g. a glass pane, which is fastened on a load-bearing structure by means of at least three retaining devices. All the retaining devices are provided with a universal joint on the part which is connected to the panel. A first of the retaining devices is connected rigidly to the load-bearing structure, and all the others are connected via a further joint. <IMAGE>
