Abstract (en)

[origin: WO9422998A1] The invention concerns the use, to clean hard surfaces, of liquid concentrates based on aqueous solutions of anionic surfactants and non-ionic surfactants, organic and/or inorganic builders, water-soluble solvents or solubilizing agents and other components usually included in such cleaning agents, the agents containing, as non-ionic surfactants, alkylpolyglycosides of the formula ROZ_x in which R = C₈ to C₁₈, preferably C₈ to C₁₄, O = oxygen and x = about 1 to 2, preferably about 1 to 1.6, Z being a glucose unit and/or, preferably, a xylose unit.
