Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9418497A1] A low voltage adaptor for light fittings which is retrofittable in place of a standard GLS or incandescent reflector lamp. The adaptor comprises a compact housing (2) which incorporates a lamp cap (1) for fitting into an existing light fittings socket and electrical connection thereto, and electrical transformer (9) to lower the supply voltage to an extra low voltage lampholder and an extra low voltage lamp (6) attached to the housing.
