Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0704321A1] The file, having inner compartments identified by coloured tabs (7a,7b), has windows (6) in its cover. The first of its inner jackets is made with a white surface which appears through the windows. The first jacket can be white on the outside only, while its inner surface is the same colour as its tab. The cover can also be glued to the outer surface of the first jacket with the exception of an area covering the windows, which is left free for the insertion of an identification strip.
