Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9507840A1] A method of forming stacked article groups, comprising the steps of supplying at least two streams of articles; forming a stream of first article groups having at least one article; placing a support base on a top surface of each first article group; and forming a second article group, having at least one article, on top of the support base of each first article group, whereby stacked article groups are formed. The stacked article groups are subsequently packaged. Apparatus for implementing the method is also disclosed.
