Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0718994A2] The mixer desk has a number of audio signal inputs (51,...55) and associated controlled setting elements (41,...50). The control panel incorporating the manual setting controls for the setting elements includes associated display elements, indicating the actual setting. The operating surface has additional manual setting controls and associated displays, selectively coupled to the setting elements via respective connections (34, 35,...40).
