Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0743196A2] The file has a spine (2) and covers (3,4). The spine has two or more grip apertures (7,8) in it to facilitate handling. These apertures may be adjacent to each other, opposite each other, one above the other or in any combination of these positions. There may be a ring passing round the bridge piece between two grip apertures. There may be at least one aperture in the region of the upper edge of the spine and one in the region of the lower edge of the spine.
