Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9521745A1] A process is disclosed for cleaning an applicator (5) for a fluid substance provided with supply channels (13) for the substance, and if required for cleaning a disc that surrounds the applicator. The substance to be removed from the applicator and if required from the disc or the mixture of substance and cleaning fluid are pumped/sucked away through the supply channels (13) for the substance.
