Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9528119A1] The invention relates to a carpet cleaning device (1), especially a sweeper or a carpet brush, with a device for removing dust, soiling particles or the like from a surface to be cleaned, especially sweeping units, preferably in the form of sweeping brushes (2) and a collecting chamber (3) for soiling removed. In order to obtain easy and especially hygienic operation with the simplest possible structure, the invention proposes that the cleaning device (1) be connectable to a suction device (12) to empty the collecting chamber (3).
