Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9531118A1] A protective sleeve including a fastener (6) to fasten the sleeve around an arm of a wearer so as to be retained in position. The sleeve extends to the upper arm of the user. The protective sleeve includes an inner layer (1) of waterproof material extending the length of the sleeve and an outermost layer (2) of absorptive material covering the inner layer circumferentially. The outer layer acts to retard liquid running along the length of the sleeve.
