Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0785398A1] The top cover element (2) is positively connected to side cover elements (3,4) by a connecting element (5) each. The connecting elements are inserted into the top and side cover elements. The connecting elements have rectangular coupling parts (7,8) fitting into the cover elements. The connecting elements have corner parts (13). The cover elements have laterally rounded or curved edges (6a,6b) into which the coupling parts fit. The side cover elements have openings (11,16,17) and are fixed onto the heater by fixtures.
