Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9714331A2] The invention concerns a bristle construction and the fitting thereof for goods equipped with bristles, in particular for brooms, brushes, scrubbing brushes, paintbrushes or the like, with bristles (3) which are made of a resilient plastics or rubber material and are integrally disposed or fitted at one end on a bristle carrier (1). According to the invention, the individual bristles (3) are provided on the generated bristle surface (5) with at least one groove-like axial depression (4) aligned in the sweeping direction (8) in a bristle fitting.
