Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9620952A2] The invention disclosed pertains to a central pre-processing system (10) with logistics for documents as well as system access (10) based on subscriber identities at the operator of telecommunications system (14). Furthermore the system is based on electronic interaction between databases (22, 24, 26) handled by a central administrator in order to avoid in-house handling of logistics regarding mail sorting, conveyance and document procurement. Also set forth are interfaces for logging on to the system and a device for the purpose.
