Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0806288A1] At least two benches - one a fixed (3) bench and the other a lifting (2) platform - adjoin a pressure chamber (4). The press (1) has a coupling system (11) for at least one press (1a,1b) over or under it. The connection has at least one plug-in part in at least one bench for a passage through. The benches can be in at least two pieces and have superimposed work tops (7,8) whose hollow interiors contain honeycombed reinforcement ridges (14). The benches may be arranged with a permeating opening (11), and that the coupling system may have five openings.
