Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0829217A2] The cover is made from a double cloth (11) with, at least, two adjoining continuous sides having a locking strip (12). The cover may have a third side, with a locking strip that can be swung, book-like, open or closed. The cover may be swung open or closed, along it's long edge (14). The cover may also be swung open or closed along it's short edge (24). The locking strip may be built through a button strip, whereby a strip is halved with a button (13). It may then be arranged, symmetrically, along it's long axis (14) opposite a button hole.
