Abstract (en)

[origin: US5938844A] PCT No. PCT/EP97/02166 Sec. 371 Date Nov. 21, 1997 Sec. 102(e) Date Nov. 21, 1997 PCT Filed Apr. 26, 1997 PCT Pub. No. WO97/41967 PCT Pub. Date Nov. 13, 1997A support strip is braced against a doctor blade for coating a web and consists of spring steel sheet subdivided by slits into tongues. The tongues are securely clamped at their ends facing away from the dosage element and the continuous frontal edge is supported between guide strips so as to be movable in the direction of the dosage element. Adjustment elements engage at the tongues to cause them to bend perpendicularly with respect to the span of the tongues to control the force applied to the doctor blade.
