Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0843150A2] A bullet collection butt has a collector wall of special plastic, esp. polyethylene, positioned in front of a collection chamber contg. rubber (esp. NK-SBR or EPDM) granules or the like, the novelty being the provision of a mobile target carriage (4a) with physical or electronic targets (9). The carriage (4a) may be equipped with its own bullet collection chamber in the form of a closed, fully replaceable box (5). Pref. electronics, esp. for electronic target representation and impact display, are located in the bottom of the carriage which is fitted with a protective hollow cladding as impact protection.
