Abstract (en)
[origin: FR2753176A1] The container comprises a structure (1A) constituted from edge pieces (2,3,4) and upper, lower and side walls. The edge pieces are arranged to comprise a lower polygonal plate (8) with a support base on a support. An upper plate (9) is positioned parallel to the lower plate at a distance from it. Columns (3) extend between the two plates on three vertical edges parallel to the container with their ends (3A,3B) held in the plate corners. One of the side walls is constituted from layers of a supple material.
