Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0855254A1] The tool kit is in the shape of a pocket knife, comprising a body with side plates and an inner cavity containing at least one deployable blade (2) with clips (23) for a number of removable tools on at least one of its surfaces. The blade with the clip on tools can be made to open by pivoting from the body of the tool kit or by sliding lengthwise from its end, and the kit can include one or more additional deployable tools, such as a cutting blade or an awl.
