Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0856335A2] The golf bag consists of a closable hard shell container on which a trolley frame can be fixed. The container has an oblong base part, an oblong front part (13) and an upper lid (31). The front part and lid are hinged to fold out from the base part. The lid can have a handle (20) and be used to pull the bag and trolley. The container has several socket sleeves for the club shafts. A ball sleeve can also be incorporated.
