Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0859114A2] The arrangement has a corner profile (100) with at least two limbs (10,12). Two or more profile rails can be connected to the limbs at a predetermined angle to one another, and the limbs have profiles which correspond to each rail. The angle may be 90 degrees, and the corner profile may have two, three, or four limbs. The latter may be of equal length, and the corner profile may have equipment (46) which can engage in corresponding equipment on the rails.
