Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0870720A1] The preassembled lift system (32) is contained in a transporter and assembly frame (1) which has a base support (4) on which are vertical supports and longitudinal stays (36) supporting the lift system. A base frame (30) is placed on the base support for fixing the support columns (33). The base support has stack-holders for frameworks, and rollers (15) which are lifted and lowered by a hydraulic hand pump (16) by hydraulic cylinders and rods.
