Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0876780A2] The worktable is constructed with a curved top panel that can be produced from a number of elements that are interlocked together (8). The elements are supported on legs (50) with struts secured to the underside. A computer monitor (56) can be mounted on a turntable (16) and a screening panel (60) can be provided at the rear. A retractable pivot mounted panel (18) is used for the keyboard.
