Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0876784A2] The chair includes a main body (1) having at least two plug-in plates (2) at the side and or back with the arm-rests (7,8) and or backrest (6) having matching counter-plates. The plug-in plates are in the form of moulding plates forming conically downward leading and top open openings. The plates on the arm rests and or back rest are identical but point in the opposite direction. The underside of the main body has a swivel-out plug-in plate. A further body has a locking piece co-operating with the plug-in plate, on its underside.
