Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9803411A1] A plastic sealing cap with a first transverse sealing wall (2) and a first side skirt (3) provided with portions (4), particularly releasable portions, for fastening the cap to a container of which the neck (5) is provided with complementary fastening portions, is disclosed. The cap further comprises a second skirt (6) adjacent to the first transverse wall (2) and/or the first skirt (3) such that an empty space (7) is defined therebetween on the external side of the cap for receiving a predetermined substance. A sealing assembly, a packaging and a method for making the sealing assembly are also disclosed.
