Abstract (en)
[origin: US6068221A] PCT No. PCT/DE97/00287 Sec. 371 Date Aug. 6, 1998 Sec. 102(e) Date Aug. 6, 1998 PCT Filed Feb. 7, 1997 PCT Pub. No. WO97/29017 PCT Pub. Date Aug. 14, 1997A folding rubbish bag holder for use in a car includes a base member having a projecting edge, a lid and an elongated connecting member hingedly connected to the base member and to the lid. The bag holder further includes a support frame having an opening for receiving a trash bag therethrough and is hingedly connected to the base member such that the support frame has a non-use position wherein said support frame is disposed along said base member and a use position wherein said support frame is pivoted substantially perpendicularly from said base member. The support frame includes at least one stop lug projecting from a top surface of the support frame and a lifting member pivotably connected to the lid for lifting the lid from the support frame and has at least one support arm for engaging the at least one stop plug on the support frame when the support frame is in the use-position. A clamping shoulder disposed at the support frame holds the support frame in the use position by engaging the projecting edge of the base member.
