Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0893370A2] The vehicle has a container formed as a rigidly mounted or detachable housing (3). A telescopic extendable and retractable support pillar (4) is located in the housing. Several depositing elements (5-8) are fitted on the pillar elements (4a-4d) to carry the refuse sacks (M). The housing has an opening on the side through which the refuse sacks can be placed on the depositing elements and or can be removed from the housing.
