Abstract (en)

[origin: WO9745047A1] A bath arrangement comprises a bath (2), a stand (4) and at least one detachable front panel (3a, 3b), the legs (5) of the bath arrangement (1) being provided at their one end with suspension means (9) intended for the front panel (3a, 3b) and at their other end with a female member (13) for fixing. The suspension means (9) allow pivoting of the front panel (3) relative to the stand (4) and the suspension means (9). The front panel (3a, 3b) is formed with holes (12) corresponding to the suspension means (9) and male members (21) corresponding to the female members (13). The invention also concerns a method of mounting the bath arrangement, as well as a stand and a method of mounting the same.
