Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0903699A1] Connects to a general purpose computer through a secure link to deliver franking information. The computer also drives a printer which prints an address and franking marks on the envelope (102, 104). The same computer generates the documents (110-114) and controls operation of a folding machine and an envelope stuffing machine (118, 120).
