Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0914801A1] The basket has a perforated base and vertical meshed outer walls with criss-cross intermediate walls forming separate compartments for larger crockery items and holders for smaller items around the edges. The basket has at least one holder (10) for hanging big spoons on which is at a distance from the compartments (7) and other holders (8) on the frame of the basket. The big-spoon-holders extend in the longitudinal direction of the basket. They have separate mounts for each spoon, all in a row and separated from each other by parallel rungs on two ribs, these ribs being joined to the basket frame by vertical supports.
