Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0916606A2] Sheets (18) from a printer or copier (10) are deposited and stacked in a sheet tray (16). A magazine (22), which forms a unit with the trays (16), stores separating foils (20). The latter are laid on top of the stacks of sheets (18) in the trays (16) in order to permit separation of groups of sheets.
