Abstract (en)
[origin: EP0917966A1] An identification document, eg a passport, comprises numerous pages (3) which are bound together at a seam to form a book. At least one page is a data page, has two layers (7,8,9) and contains information. One of the layers is transparent and extends beyond the seam (14). The layers at the information point are joined to form an inseparable laminate.
