Abstract (en)
[origin: WO9807135A1] This publicity strip (8) comprises a rigid frame (9, 10), on which is removably and tautly mounted a translucent cloth (15) folded in a U- shape so as to form a front panel (16) and a rear panel (17). The frame (9, 10) bears electric lighting means (20, 21), arranged between the two cloth panels (16, 17). The upper member (9) of the frame is provided with means for fastening (22) to the rod supporting (6) the cloth (3) a roller blind (1), or is itself this supporting rod. The invention is applicable to external blinds for shop windows or the front of other commercial buildings.
