Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0920890A2] The template (1) has a flat surface (2) with two parallel side edges (3,4), one of which serves as a stop for a document (5) to be handled. The side edge has a stop element (6) engaging with a side edge (7) of the document. The template has a long L-shaped cut-out (8) and this can be moved over symbols/ numbers (9) in a row. Pointers (10) located at even relative distances project into the cut-out, or the cut-out has associated fields. Each pointer or field is associated with a certain symbol/number.
