Abstract (en)

[origin: WO9809827A1] The invention relates to a work of art of sand and/or clay material. The sand and/or clay material (2) is compressed to form a body (3) which alternatingly has been given the desirable shape and been treated with a fixing agent (4), wherein the shaped formed body (3), after drying and solidifying presents a hard surface layer. The invention also relates to a method and means for producing said work of art.
