Abstract (en)
[origin: DE19629693A1] The invention pertains to a piece of furniture (1) with an integrated massage unit (2) that has at least one massage head (3) with at least one massage body (4). The massage head (3) is characterized by its compact design and its possible ways of providing an effective massage. For this purpose, two motors (7, 8) are situated at the ends of the shaft (6) and drive the shaft (6) and the massage body (4) independently of each other.
