Abstract (en)

[origin: EP0928569A2] A layer of a double-sided adhesive is applied to a piece of decorative fabric. The fabric is cut into narrow strips, and a temporary reinforcing tag is attached to the end of each strip while its edges are turned in and pressed between rollers to stick them down. Another layer of double-sided adhesive tape is attached to the back of each strip after removing the tag. The finished decorative strips (17) are then applied to the article (18) to be decorated and sewn down.
