Abstract (en)

[origin: GB2332370A] To save space, e.g. in an office, a space divider or screen 1 has at least one computer unit mounted thereon or partially or wholly received therein. Screen 1, connectible to another screen, incorporates flat VDU 2 and planar computer components 3, and comprises a frame 4 and one or more panels 12, 13 which may enclose at least one computer unit. A workstation may comprise the screen attached to a work table. Four such work stations arranged in a square comprise a four-person unit (Fig. 4, not shown).
